LIET. HOBSON A TAR HEEL.

He is Related to the Moreheads of This City and is Known Here.Some of our citizens remember Lieutenant Richmond P. Hobson, who visited relations in this city three or four years ago and was the guest of Mr.
Joseph M. Morehead.He is the nephew and not the grand son of ex-state senator S. M. Hobson (as stated in some of the papers) of Davie county. His grandmother, Annie Morehead Hobson, is still living in Davie county, is 87 years old and partially blind, but with intellect unclouded. She is the daughter of a revolutionary soldier and her maternal grandfather, Capt. Joseph Motley, was a captain in the regiment of Col.
George Washington and served in what is known as the "French and Indian war," which began in 1755 and lasted seven years. Captain Hobson had six sons in the revolutionary war.
Judge Hobson, the father of Lieutenant Hobson, was a classmate at the University of Maj. Chas. M. Stedman of this city.Major Stedman and Judge Hobson served together during the civil war and the major is authority for the statement that at Spotsylvania Hobson, the father, showed bravery as conspicuous as did the son at Santiago. The crew who accomplished the daring feat of sinking the Merrimac were Lieutenant Richmond P. Hobson, assistant naval constructor, and Daniel Montague, George Charette, J. C.
Murphy, Oscar Deignan, Joan P.
Phillips, John Kelly and H. Clausen.
The latter is a coxswain of the New York, and took part in the expedition against orders.Captain Hobson started on his perilous trip at 3 o'clock in the morning and under cover of clouds over the moon stole close in shore before the Merrimac was discovered, then a gun from Morro opened on his ship and was answered by the other batteries across the bay. She was followed by a steam launch under Cadet Powell who waited for some time for the crew to appear, but seeing no signs of them put back and reported that the Merrimac had been sunk squarely across the channel blockading it. Later the Spanish Admiral sent an officer to the New York under a flag of truce to say that the men had floated ashore and were safe but prisoners.

A Splendid Record.

Mr. George H. Royster has been the financial secretary of Endowment Rank, K. of P. of this city for the past ten years, handling many thousands of dollars for the insurance department of the organization, and has conducted it in a manner highly satisfactory to the policy holders as well as the board of control.Last year he scored a brilliant record in surpassing all other domains in the United States in percentage of membership. We are pleased to state that Mr. Royster will continue as heretofore and will collect all assessments and dues.

New Department Added.

Mr. N. J. McDuffie, Greensboro's largest furniture dealer, in fact, one of the largest in the state, has added undertaking as a branch of his business. He received the first instalment of goods for that department today.
He has purchased a handsome hearse, which will soon arrive. This department will receive close attention and will be first class in all its appointments. Mr. McDuffie, in addition to a mammoth line of furniture, recently put in a complete line of all kinds of house furnishing goods.

Ben Hur Tonight.

In the courthouse tonight at 8 o'clock there will be given an illustrated reading from Lew Wallace's masterpiece, "Ben Hur, a Tale of the Christ." There will be one hundred stereopticon views which will illustrate the leading incidents of the book. The chariot race alone will be well worth the small admission asked. The entertainment will be given under the auspices of the ladies' aid society of Westminster Presbyterian church.

Santiago Forts Bombarded Again on Saturday Night—English Praise Hobson's Daring Exploit.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

New York, June 6—A special to the Evening Journal from Cape Haytien says that at daybreak this morning the disembarking of the American troops at Santiago began. The troops landed at Aguadores a few miles to the east of the entrance to the harbor. The landing was made under cover of Sampson's guns, the batteries of the enemy having first been silenced. At 7:55 o'clock when

THE MISSIONARIES YESTERDAY.

Reverends Palmore, Tucker and Allen Instruct Large Congregations.Yesterday was a field day at the Methodist churches in this city. At both the morning and evening services West Market and Centenary churches were well filled to listen to entertaining and instructive sermons by the ministers whose names appear above.At West Market street church Dr.
Palmore preached to a large congregation at 11 o'clock. At the same hour, Rev. C. Tucker, a missionary for twelve years in Brazil preached a splendid descriptive sermon in Centenary. Mr. Tucker revealed some startling facts in regard to the situation in South America. He related many interesting and touching incidents connected with the mission work in the distribution of Bibles, down there, and impressed upon his hearers the point that wherever the Bible goes light begins to dawn, and there is immediate demand for preachers to explain its truths.At the evening services Dr. Palmore, who has traveled more, perhaps in the same number of years, than any min-

THE BATTLESHIP OREGON.

The Oregon is 348 feet long and has a displacement of 10,388 tons. She cost $3,180,000 and steams 15 knots an hour. Her crew consists of 424 men. Four 12 inch, eight 8 inch, four 6 inch and 30 smaller guns compose her armament.
She Sunk a Spanish Torpedo Boat with One Shot.the despatch boat left for the cable office the cannonading was rapidly increasing.

LANDING CONFIRMED.

New York, June 6—A special to the Journal from Mole St. Nicholas, Hayti, says that the auxiliary cruiser St.
Louis arrived there this morning with despatches from Admiral Sampson for the navy department at Washington.
She reported that five thousand American troops were landed to the east of Santiago early this morning under the protection of the blockading squadron.
The landing party included a battalion of engineers and the batteries of siege artillery.

ENGLISH PRAISE HOBSON.

London, June 6—Every evening paper in the city echoes the morning papers in unstinted praise of Lieutenant Hobson's daring exploit with the Merrimac. The gallant deed was ably planned and pluckily executed.

SATURDAY NIGHT'S BATTLE.

Madrid, June 6—A despatch to the Imparcial from Santiago de Cuba says that at 10 o'clock Saturday night twenty American warships attacked Santiago but stood so far out to sea that none of the shots reached the distant forts. The bombardment was continued for 45 minutes and then stopped suddenly. It has not been resumed. The Spaniards made no reply waiting for a nearer approach of the ships but they kept their distance. On Sunday sixteen American warships were still moored in sight of Santiago.

THE HERALDO STORY.

London, June 6—A central news despatch from Vienna says that information has been received there from a private source that the equipment of the Cadiz squadron, consisting of the Emperado Carlos V, Patriota and Rapido is proceeding in the slowest manner and the ships are far from being ready for sea. The news of the departure of the squadron is incorrect.
The Star correspondent at Madrid says that the Herald has started a theory that a part of the Cape Verde fleet has gone to the Philippines. It announces that the Cristobal Colon, a torpedo boat destroyer and three auxiliary cruisers, painted and rigged to look like the cruisers Almirante Oquendo, Infanta Maria Teresa and Vizcaya have been sent to Santiago as a blind.
The real battleships have reached Madagascar under instructions from Madrid to proceed via Cape of Good Hope. The Spanish cabinet has instructed Senor Leon y Castillo, Spanish ambassador to Paris, to negotiate a loan of a half billion pesetas, giving railway concessions as security for the loan.

Soldiers Rations Reduced.

Cape Haytien, June 5—A despatch from a government source at Port-au-Prince says: "A Haytien informant, now in Santiago de Cuba, cables that the destitution there has greatly increased since the bombardment began and the military commander has been forced to reduce the rations of the soldiers, among whom there is much discontent." There has been no direct communication from Santiago, thus far today.

HOBSON WILL BE EXCHANGED.

Monterey Started for Manila This Morning—Low Wallace Fails to be Appointed General.

By Cable THE TELEGRAM.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 6, 11 a. m.
—Advices from Port Antonio state that it is uncertain whether the Spanish torpedo boat sunk by the Oregon was the Terror or Furor. The Oregon sighted the torpedo boat sneaking toward the harbor and signalled her to stop. The signal of the Oregon was improperly answered and the warship fired a 13-inch shell striking the torpedo boat fairly amidship. The torpedo boat instantly sank, all hands aboard being drowned. Advices from Port De France say that the Terror is still there but is disabled. If this report be true the torpedo boat was probably the Furor sent ahead as a scout for the Cadiz squadron of Admiral Camara.

REPORT CONFIRMED.

Kingston, Jamaica, June 6—The sinking of the Spanish torpedo boat Terror or Furor by the warship Oregon has been confirmed by advices from Port Antonio.

LANDING OF TROOPS.

Washington, June 6—It is expected that news of the landing of troops at Santiago will be received in a day or two. According to the best information obtainable as to the time when the first detachment left the Florida coast the first military forces, consisting for the most part of engineers, should arrive at Santiago today. The war department still guard the plans for the occupation of Santiago with the greatest care and absolutely nothing can be learned concerning them. The time when the main body of troops will be embarked cannot be learned but it may be today. The fact has been well established that the conditions at Santiago demand the immediate landing of troops.
Little time will be lost in embarking 12000. The administration has already designated the troops intended for that duty. Secretary Alger has prepared a list of the Spanish prisoners now at Atlanta for exchange through the navy department for Lieutenant Hobson and his gallant crew. So soon as the exchange has been approved by Secretary Long the exchange will be made.

WALLACE NOT APPOINTED.

Washington, June 6—The indications are now that Low Wallace will fail of his appointment as a major-general of volunteers owing to his extreme age, he being now 71 years old.

CONDITIONS IN HAVANA.

Havana, June 6, (uncensored)—The city is longing for the coming of the Spanish warships under Camara. The fortifications have been greatly strengthened and the area of cultivation largely increased. The prices of food continue constantly on the rise and there is great distress among the unemployed of the city who are numerous. The failure of the autonomist government becomes clearer every day.

MONTEREY SAILS.

San Francisco, June 6—The monitor Monterey accompanied by the Collier Brutz sailed this morning for the Philippines by way of Honolulu where she will join the Mohican.

REPORT DENIED.

New York, June 6—A special to the Tribune from Mole St. Nicholas says that advices from the flagship New York deny that a Spanish torpedo boat has been sunk by the Oregon.

WAR APPROPRIATION MADE.

Washington, June 6—The urgency deficiency bill carrying an appropriation of $17,750,000 for the war and navy departments was passed by the senate and house this afternoon.

From the Mountains.

An excursion with about two hundred passengers aboard came down this morning over the C. F. & Y. V. from Mt. Airy and are taking in the sights of the City of Flowers. A number of Mt. Airy's prominent people are in the party. They will leave on their return trip about 6:30 this evening.

Revenue Bill in Conference.

Washington, June 6—The house voted on the war revenue bill in conference. The conferees on the measure are Dingley, Payne and Hatley.

SEIZING DOGS AND GOATS.

The Virginia Troops Had a Pendant for North Carolina's Pets.Mr. Fred L. Merritt, our special war correspondent at Jacksonville wired yesterday that the North Carolina troops met the Virginians at camp and gave them the freedom of the place.The Richmond Dispatch's special from Jacksonville has some items that will interest North Carolinians. We quote:"The trip through was not entirely without accident. At Battleboro, N. C., one of the men of the third section, with the usual penchant of the boys for pets and mascots, caught up a beautiful dog as the train was pulling out, and taking it into the car, carried it to Jacksonville and into camp. At Selma Colonel Baker received a telegram from a physician in Battleboro, saying the dog was his little girl's; that her grief was uncontrollable, and asking that it be returned. Colonel Baker wired that he would have the dog sent back when Jacksonville was reached.

TOOK GOAT AND CART.

"But the feat of a member of Company G is the talk of the camp. Up at a little North Carolina town the train stopped for a few minutes, and the instant it started he seized a goat and cart standing on the platform and dragged both up the steps and into his car. He has the goat in the camp tonight, but the cart is not to be seen.
He swears the billy came up into the car of his own accord.—News and Observer.

You can get the telegraphic news twelve hours earlier in THE TELEGRAM than in any paper that gets into Greensboro, and for four dollars a year less.

The reports that the Spaniards had cleared the channel should at least have waited until the Americans blocked it. But then there is nothing like enterprise.

What a Godsend it is for the democratic newspapers in North Carolina that the Spanish war is on hand, for were it not for that what would they fill up their columns with?—Home Rule.

Subsidize a few populist imaginations, O, Paragon of Patriotism, what do you suppose?

In the present war one most pleasant realization has been brought home to the American people: that the age of heroes is not entirely past, that there are men of as great daring, of as supreme courage, today as at any time in our history. It has come as a sort of surprise to us. We have heard so much about our sordid hunt for the dollar and the enervating influences of prosperity that we are learning with a kind of wonder that we are not afraid to fight. Our pride is all the greater then in a Bagley who laughed in the very face of death and a Hobson who ran his ship in under a storm of shells, calmly blew her up and floated to the shore of his enemy to become a prisoner when his work was done.

President Gates, of Iowa College, has been cruelly misplaced in the world's economy. His tender soul was engrafted in the tenement of clay that irradiates some aces too early. It is wicked to keep him at the head of Iowa College where he must deal with football and hazing and other more or less militant manifestations of American college youth. Witness this fourly Jeremiad on the times that be:

"There is no dishonorable peace; there is no honorable war. I have to pinch myself to see whether I am alive at the end of the nineteenth century, or whether I am dead in trespasses and sin in the old days when Jehovah went forth to war."

President Gates should be placed in charge of a silk lined dove cote of uniform temperature where only doves of the purest milky white dwell.

Mr. Charles N. Post, of the Lyon & Healy Music Company, of Chicago, just back from the Orient, enourists himself with sackcloth and ashes and toots the following sad, sad dirge:

"What we need is a navy. We cut a very sorry picture among the Asiatic fleets of the other powers. When I was at Hong Kong I counted twenty-nine English men-of-war, six German, seven French, twelve Spanish, one Italian, and eight United States cruisers. The representative American vessel at Hong Kong is an ancient side-wheeler, unfit to get out of the bay. The people of these far eastern countries have a poor opinion of us, because they judge the size and strength of this country by our naval representation in their waters."

It was cruel to so blister the Chicago sensibilities of Mr. Post and dwarf the figure he cut in the east by an insufficient naval display at the China station. But then is not Mr. Post also a "side-wheeler?"

Certain esteemed contemporaries seem certain that the war will procure the downfall of the yellow journal. We do not believe it. The yellow journal supplies a real demand and its circulation has grown with the progress of the war. The yellow journal bears the same relation to respectable newspapers that the yellow-back novel does to respectable literature and just as the yellow-back novel has held its own so will the yellow journal. They appeal, in a measure to the same clientele, though a great many men and women of good sense read the journals who do not read the novels. The tendency of the newspaper has been to print news that is colorless and the tendency of people is to like news with some individuality and color, even if the color is yellow. The yellow journal may be depended on to stay with us for some time—until popular taste improves.

To secure uniforms for all the volunteers naturally requires some time, but in every town and city of this country provisions may be had and when the soldier boys go hungry it is due to beastly management somewhere. The sooner the war is taken out of politics and log rolling in appointments and provisioning is stopped the better. We venture the prophecy that when the war is over and the boys return home and people begin to investigate there will be some exceedingly unsavory revelations and a goodly number of political scapels, some of them on lofty craniums, will be hung up to dry as a result of it. The only redeeming feature in the war thus far has been the conduct of the navy and it has done well accordingly as it has been able to keep out of reach of Washington and the grossly incompetent administration there.

General News in a Nutshell.

Mrs. Eliza Brown, the oldest postmistress in the United Kingdom, has just died of the age of ninety-three at Auchmithie, over the post office of which place she had presided for 58 years. She was the widow of the village schoolmaster. Her memory went back to the reception of the news of Waterloo, the death of King George and the coronation of the Queen.

A movement for the formation of a Scottish kilt society has been instituted by Theodore Napier, whose enthusiasm for all matters relating to Scottish tradition is well known abroad. One condition of membership in the new organization is that those who may join shall appear at all outdoor meetings in the traditional garb.

Count Tolstoi has announced that he will devote the rest of his life to combatting patriotism, which he thinks is one of the "dreadful evils" in the world.

A magnificent fountain to be known as the Chateau d'Eau will be one of the attractions of the Paris exposition in 1900. Present plans provide for a monument surmounted by a group representing humanity led by progress for the centrepiece of the cascade, and the whole will be surrounded by a circular staircase.

In China carrier pigeons are protected from birds of prey by an ingenious little apparatus consisting of thin bamboo tubes fastened to the birds' bodies with thread passed beneath the wings. As the pigeon flies along the action of the air passing through the tubes produces a shrill whistling sound which keeps birds of prey at a respectful distance.

It seems that some of the citizens of Pulaski county, Ky., are oblivious to the flight of time. The Somerset Reporter says: "If Abraham Lincoln's vote continues to increase all over the United States as it does in Pulaski county, serious complications may arise. Every presidential election he polls a good vote in this county, and it is largely on the increase. Washington also received a few scattering votes."

The Emperor of Japan has conferred the second order of the Rising Sun upon D. W. Stevens, counselor of the Japanese Legation at Washington. This honor has fallen to the lot of but one other foreigner and is given only to those upon whom the Emperor wishes to confer a special mark of his favor.

Cadiz Squadron Seen Again.

Madrid, June 5, 4 p. m.—A dispatch from Barcelona says a well-known merchant there has received a dispatch to the effect that on May 27th a Spanish squadron consisting of three cruisers and three unprotected vessels was seen off the island of Madagascar proceeding northward.

Two members of the Lyceum club, today made a wager of $50,000 as to the whereabouts of Admiral Cervera's squadron, one betting that it is in Cuban waters and the other that it is en route to the Philippines. The money is to go the national subscription of the navy.

No Symptoms as Yet.

London, June 3, 4 p. m.—The Berlin correspondent of the Times says: "Manila advises to German commercial houses assert that there is no symptom of insurrection in Manila, which is well supplied with water and provisions. The presence of the American squadron hardly affected the native population. Only foreigners are injured by the blockade, and European residents think their governments ought to interfere to protect them."

REFUSED TO BE KING.

MORE THAN ONE MAN HAS SPURNED

ROYAL HONORS.

Some of Those Who Have Declined to Wear a Monarch's Crown—The Golden

Wreath That Was Offered to and Refused by Beaconsfield.

It is no mean distinction to have refused a crown. There is probably not one man in a million who would decline to wear a crown if it were offered him, in spite of the restless nights and fearful days that are commonly supposed to be the lot of a king. Even Cromwell is said to have refused the crown of England more from fear of others than from any other motive.

But there have been many men since Cromwell who have refused to wear a monarch's crown. Thirty-five years ago, when the throne of Greece was vacant, more than one great English statesman might have ruled over the destinies of that classic country, but the difficulties in the way were formidable.

Mr. Gladstone's name was freely mentioned in connection with the crown of Greece, though, as Mr. Gladstone was a member of the government at the time, the proposal never took definite shape.

The late Lord Derby, however, who had strong sympathies with Greece, was offered the crown and refused it, throwing away £50,000 a year and a kingdom. It was not the first time a man had declined to sit on the throne of Greece. Prince Leopold, the father of the present king of the Belgians, having refused the crown when Greece was declared a kingdom in 1830. Prince Leopold's reason for refusing the crown was that the proposed boundaries of the country were insufficient, the exclusion of Crete especially influencing his decision.

One of Queen Victoria's sons, the Duke of Edinburgh, has also been offered the Grecian crown. He was appealed in the sixties at the time Lord Derby declined the crown, but was compelled to refuse the offer owing to the attitude of the powers, who strongly declared their opposition to Prince Alfred being crowned king of Greece. The throne was then offered to the present king, on whose behalf it was accepted by his father, the king of Denmark.

The crown of Austria-Hungary was refused in the middle of the century by the Archduke Franz Karl, the father of the present emperor. King Ferdinand I abdicated in December, 1848, the throne then descending in the ordinary course to Archduke Franz Karl. The archduke, however, declined the crown, which he handed over to his son, who still wears it.

Another crown which has been more than once refused is the crown of Rou-mania. When Roumania was declared a kingdom, it was settled that the throne should descend to Prince Leopold, the eldest brother of the then reigning king. The prince, however, voluntarily yielded his rights to the crown in favor of his son, Prince Wilhelm, the renunciation being registered in the senate in October, 1880. Prince Wilhelm remained heir apparent for eight years, but toward the end of 1888 he formally refused to accept the crown and his brother became heir apparent, being now Prince of Roumania. The prince has since married Princess Marie, a granddaughter of Queen Victoria.

Not many years ago a nephew of the great Napoleon died in exile, after refusing a crown. Prince Napoleon, nicknamed "Plon-Plon," son of a brother of Napoleon Bonaparte, was invited to sit on the throne of Roumania as the first king of that country, but he declined

SETTLEMENT WITH PIRATES.

How It Was Done in a Spanish Island,

Sultan Presented.

Malaga, Spain, June 5.—Details have been received here as to the punishment recently inflicted upon Rif pirates by the Sherifian troops at Alhucemas, a small island fortress and prison settlement belonging to Spain, in the Mediterranean, off the coast of Morocco, near Cape Morocco.

It appears that the Bocoy and Ka-byle tribes were assembled to pay a fine of $20,000 when suddenly, at the sound of a trumpet, the troops attacked them and slaughtered many. Twenty-five heads were collected in a basket for presentation to the Sultan of Morocco.

Cervera Has Ability.

Washington, June 4.—Admiral Cervera, whose name has been appearing daily for weeks past in every newspaper in the United States, is sixty-five years of age. His father was a nobleman, possessing large estates and was one of the richest wine merchants in Spain. His mother was remotely con-ected with the royal family.

He graduated from the Naval Academcy at San Fernando in 1854. In 1859 he participated in the expedition against Morocco, next he served in Chinese and Peruvian waters, and was sent to Cuba when the ten-years' war began. Shortly after he was recalled to Madrid and entered the Spanish Cabinet as secretary of the navy.

The Pelayo, the first and only first-class battleship in the Spanish navy, was contracted under his supervision and he assumed command of her as admiral. He has been adjutant to the Queen Regent and was the head of the Spanish naval commission sent to London. He has fifteen medals of honor and is accounted the foremost naval officer of Spain. His ability is unquestioned but he is insolent and overbearing, hard and cruel to his men and much disliked by them.—

Baltimore Sun.

The Supreme Hymn.

Speaking of hymns, the Rev. Robert Collyer said the other day: "I well remember one day when this subject was the object of a discussion between Ralph Waldo Emerson and Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes. The latter said that many of the so called hymns were mere pieces of cabinet work. Then his voice deepened, his eyes shone, as we remember him in his noblest moments, as he said, 'One hymn I think supreme.' Emerson threw his head back, as he always did when his attention was arrested, and waited.

Dr. Holmes repeated the first verse:

"Thou hidden love of God, whose height,

Whose depth, unfathomed, no man knows,

I see from far thy beauteous light.

Only I sigh for thy repose.

My heart is pained, nor can it be

At rest till it finds rest in thee.

"I know—I know," exclaimed Emerson. "That is the supreme hymn."

Children's Day Exercises.

Children's day exercises for Foreign Missions were held yesterday morning in Westminster Presbyterian church.
The exercises were opened with the reading of Luke 10, chapter 29-37 verses. Questions were asked on the following subjects: "Our Neighbors, What may we hope for neighbors? Is it nothing to you? What has been done for our neighbors in China, Japan and Korea? What has been done for them in Mexico, Brazil and Africa?" they were responded to by the children and were very interesting and instructive. The pastor, Rev. S. O.
Hall, then preached a very strong sermon to the children on the reasons for 'Sending the gospel to the Heath-ern.' The services were enjoyed very much by all those who attended.

Journey on a Bicycle.

C. J. Lincke, who has until recently been connected with the Asheville Daily Gazette as linotype expert, was in the city Saturday, having made the trip on a bicycle. The journey was commenced Thursday morning at 6:25 and will end at Raleigh. This is perhaps the first time that any wheelman has covered the entire distance, the route taken crossed eight counties and part of the ninth.

Mr. Lincke stated that in most of the counties through which he passed the wheat acreage is larger than for years and the prospects of a good yield are excellent. Mr. Lincke further said that Buncombe, Catawba and Guilford counties have the best roads of any thus far crossed.

HE WANTED BAIL.

And in Attempting to Take It Was Shot by the Officer.

Henry Whittis, a negro who has been before the mayor and magistrates of the city many times for sundry and divers offenses contrary to the statutes and against the peace and dignity of the state, was arrested this morning by Officers Weatherly and Scott, charged with the larceny of six dollars from Robert Oakley. The justice of the peace before whom the trial was to be held instructed the officers to bring the prisoner up for trial at four o'clock this afternoon.

Henry was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Dave Scott, who started around town with his prisoner to allow him to hunt some one to go on his bond.
Down on Davis street Henry attempted to go it himself and take leg bail but was immediately fired on by the officer, the ball taking effect in the right side.
It did not stop him, however, and he ran into the lot at Mr. Tatum's where he was captured by Messrs. Will Mc-Adoo and Cape Thomas.

The wound is not thought to be serious, but if Henry escapes the jail the effects of the shot may keep him out of meanness for awhile.

Jail Recruits.

Officer Bennett, of High Point, arrived in the city this morning having in charge three negroes who were placed in jail. One of them Jim Coin, has already passed his "examination" before the mayor for some small offense and goes direct to the county roads.

The other two, Gowan Palmer and Chas. Brown, will be tried before Judge Robinson, in the superior court.
Brown is a Greensboro negro. He went up to High Point and armed with a pistol and knife tried to take possession of a colored woman's house.

Palmer finished a term on the roads last Saturday, arrived in High Point that night and immediately declared himself the "bully" of the town and hoisted his battle flag. Officer Bennett made a charge and Palmer retreated but was afterwards captured.
The chances are that he will be detailed for road duty.

Judge Robinson Sick.

Superior court is not in session here today owing to the sickness of Judge Robinson at his home in Golde-boro. The sheriff will adjourn court from day to day until the judge arrives, or until otherwise notified by him.

Mission Board Meeting.

The Woman's Mission Board resumed work this morning. Mrs.
Wightman, president of the board, delivered her annual address upon the work of the board and the needs of the mission field. The treasurer's report was read and discussed at some length. Rev. Mr. Tucker, missionary to Brazil, made a short farewell talk to the board preparatory to returning to his field of labor. Luncheon was served in the church at one o'clock and the reports of the various committees was resumed in the afternoon. It will probably require tomorrow and next day for the board to complete its work.
